ATTENTION: CRIS L. RODRIGUEZ

In TOTAL EXASPERATION, applicant requests a status report on the above-identified application. Is there any chance that applicant is going to receive a reply to his Exasperated Request For Reconsideration that was filed one month (31 days) ago? It would be nice to have a response prior to applicant being forced to file a Notice of Appeal. Is there any chance of getting a response?

Respectfully submitted,

Terry M. Crellin
